For children of the slums - food every day

Life in Africa's slums such as Kibera, Kenya (left) is tough for thousands of children.

Without education, these boys would have little chance of improving their own lives, and breaking out of the cycle of poverty. Even when children can go to school, if they are always hungry, they cannot concentrate on lessons.

Children in FTC feeding programmes can have food everyday and education to gain essential life skills. Now, they have a fighting chance of a future, thanks to Feed The Children UK., and new partners Ackers, Clayton and Reeve.
