

Pants, Pads & A Pound

Help girls in Africa go to school - at any time of the month

Teenage girls in Uganda, Kenya and Zimbabwe regularly miss vital education for one week in four - just because of their periods. Girls from poor families often cannot afford sanitary pads, or even underwear, so they just don't go to school when menstruating.

Can you support Feed The Children's pants, pads & a pound appeal? Please bring your donations of sanitary pads (not tampons), girls' knickers, age 11 to adult (must be new, and not thongs!) and a £1 to:

Larger donations of cash to help send items overseas are also gratefully received.
